

BETH LEVENSTEIN

210 West 101 Street, New York, NY, 10025 C:917-250-6188 beth.eve.levenstein@gmail.com

Summary

Specialist in working with children with learning disabilities many of whom carry an additional diagnosis of mood disorder, autism, ADD, and ADHD, using a variety of techniques adapted to the individual needs of a child. Subject areas include reading, writing, mathematics and Spanish.

Experience

Private Practice in Remediation of Learning Difficulties

NY

- Develop reading, writing and arithmetic programs for individual students based on the well established programs.
- Work with students to acquire Spanish reading, writing and speaking skills based on their presenting level of skill development and their current class placement.

Solomon Schechter School of Manhattan

NY

Teacher

- Provided remedial services for children grades 3-8 in reading, math, writing in small group or individual settings.
- Created and implemented a Spanish curriculum for 6th grade students.

Post Graduate Center for Mental Health

NY

Coordinator of Remedial Services

- Supervised graduate students on remedial techniques.
- Participated in community programs to recruit students for remedial intervention.
- Provided psycho-educational testing for students with academic difficulties.

Lenox Hill Hospital

NY

Coordinator of Remedial Services

- Provided remedial services for adults and children.
- Served as a interpreter for Spanish speaking clients for intake interviews.

Bronx Children's Psychiatric Center

NY

Teacher in autistic unit

- Developed and applied techniques for teaching basic academic and social skills to autistic children.
- Participated in presentations at Einstein School of Medicine on cognitive profiles in autism and related remedial techniques.

Education

M.Phil. Biopsychology • City University of New York • New York, NY
M.S. Early Childhood Education • Bank Street College of Education • New York, NY
B.A. Spanish and French • Antioch College • Yellow Springs, OH

Credentials

New York State Certification-Teacher of Children-Nursery, Kindergarten, and grades 1-6
NYS Certification, Teacher of Children with Special Learning Handicaps
Spanish Embassy Certification in Methodologies for Teaching Spanish